FOUGHT TO GET BERTH

Appointment at $10,000 a
Year Was Ratified on March 14.

Leo Arnstein, who made a long and bitter fight to obtain the post of executive manager of the Board of Education at $10,000 a year, resigned yesterday on the ground that recent amendments to the educational laws destroyed the efficiency of his office.

Arnstein, once a member of the Board of Education, resigned to make his fight for the executive management. The appointment was ratified only March 14. The vote in the board was close, Arnstein winning out by a margin of one ballot. He had been fighting for the post since he was elected to the board in 1913. He is now engaged in a course at the Presbyterian Hospital preparing for work as a Red Cross nurse. Mr. McNear was graduated from Cornell in 1913 and has been enrolled for the Engineer Corps course to be sent to France.

ANOTHER "BILL" SCORES

"Come Across or the Kaiser Will," Says Edwards in Liberty Loan Appeal.

Billy Sunday told a great audience at the Tabernacle last night just what he will do when he gets to heaven if he arrives there before "Ma" does.

"The first thing I'll do," Billy began, "will be to rush up to Jesus and tell Him how glad I am to see Him. 'Say, Jesus,' I'll start out, 'I want to thank you for coming down to this old God-hating world and bathing it in your blood and giving me a chance to save myself. And I want to thank you that you sent me around the country preaching Your word, and especially for letting me come to New York.'"
